Family News

Hazel Park's Funeral will take place tomorrow Monday 28th October at 1:15 p.m. here at Trinity.

Dear Friends,

Thank you for the donation of your harvest goods to Trinity Mission. We are very grateful and again this year we have been overwhelmed by people's generosity.

We continue to open four times a week offering meals, food parcels, clothing and support to our guests.

The tinned items will go into one of the 60 food parcels we hand out each week. The fresh items will have been used in preparing meals (we serve around 150 a week) or given out to guests – they really appreciate fresh fruit. Through your donations we continue to be able to serve the homeless and disadvantaged people of Castleford and the surrounding area, offering Christian hope as well as the practical support.

I would like to add a special thank you to the choir for their patience and understanding as we have used their vestry to sort the donations and to apologies for the inconvenience this has caused. Many thanks again. Deacon Sharon on behalf of all at Trinity Mission.

Windows and church will be decorated on Wednesday 27th November and the large hall will be set up on Friday 29th November in the afternoon.

STAMPS FOR CHRISTIAN AID

Maureen will no longer be collecting used stamps for Christian Aid. The office in Leeds may be closing so there will be no outlet for them. Also since the current office is in the Quaker Meeting House which is a good walk out of the city centre, it makes it difficult to get there.

Thank you very much for your support over the years.
